SPCNM INCORPORATED SOCIETY AGM - WEDNESDAY 19 APRIL 2017 (5.00PM) IN WELEDA (SPCNM CLASSROOM 3)

We are looking forward to seeing as many of our members as possible, and especially those recent graduates who have become members in the last year.

BECOME A MEMBER OF THE SPCNM INCORPORATED SOCIETY

As a member you will have the opportunity to be closely involved in the ongoing development and progression of research and scholarly activities of the College, and to play a role in working with the governance, management and community teams in a range of critical issues affecting the sector. Members also receive free access to the College library and some seminars. An application form is on the last page of this newsletter, and further details are available from Karen Wesseling (karen.wesseling@spcnm.ac.nz)

PAUA CLINIC 2017

The Puaa Clinic will be open to students from March, and will be available to the public from April onwards. Initial adult consults are $30 with free follow-up visits. Visits are free for under 6s and over 65 year olds.

Please see <http://www.spcnm.ac.nz/puaa-clinic/> for more information.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES 2017

We will continue to offer, free of charge to our SPCNM community, the following extra-curricular activities: Weekly Meditation (Chris & Shirley); Weekly Yoga (Lekshe Chodron); Monthly Reiki-share (Lynne Walker). See College notice board for more information.
